IGHTING AGAINST A METER.

Roanoke Gas and Water Company Enjoined

The Exchange Building Company, through its counsel, Messrs Penn & Coker, have filed a bill of injunction in a clerk's office of this city against the Roanoke Gas and Water Company, straining the latter corporation from water meter in the Exchange building. A representative of THE TIMES last night called on Col. John E. Penn, counsel for the Exchange Building Company, and asked him for the particulars of the affair. Colonel Penn said:

"In one of the resolutions passed by council granting a franchise to the Roanoke Land Improvement Company more than ten years ago, which company then owned the gas plant, it was provided that the charges for gas should be uniform to all citizens of the city of the same class of service. The Roanoke Gas and Water Company assigned its franchise to the Roanoke Land and Improvement Company, and one of the conditions in the resolution of Council, which sanctioned the franchise in the name of the city to the assignment, was that the charges for stores using one hydrant should not exceed $9 per annum. The allegations in the injunction bill filed by the Exchange Building Company is that the Gas and Water Company is undertaking to arbitrarily place meters in some of the business houses and residences in the city of Roanoke and refraining from placing meters in others. That the Exchange Building Company has two stores in the Exchange Building, and under the resolution of Council mentioned, the Roanoke Gas and Water Company have no right whatever to put a meter in the Exchange Building and thus discriminate against the stores and also against other portions of the Exchange Building, some apartments of which are lot boarding houses and some for other purposes. That the Roanoke Gas and Water Company is really violating in its instance both of the resolutions referred to, the one against the uniformity expressly provided for by council and the other against the stipulation of the $9 per year rate where only one hydrant is used."

T. T. Fishburne, president of the Exchange Building Company, was next seen by the reporter and said: "Some time ago the Gas and Water Company wanted to place a meter in the tobacco factory of Fishburne Bros. free of charge and charge us for water at the rate of 20 cents per 1,000 gallons. We refused and offered to pay for the meter and settle for the water at the rate of 15 cents per 1,000 gallons, which is the rate quoted by them to manufacturing plants. After consulting with their counsel the company finally agreed to this. Then about four days ago the Exchange Building Company was notified that a meter would be placed in the building and 25 cents per 1,000 gallons of water used be assessed. The Exchange building contains, besides the National Exchange Bank, two stores, a hotel and other business concerns. We found that we could make no adjustment with the renters of the different apartments of the building. The hotel would probably use more water than the grocery and either place more than the bank. The Gas and Water Company were notified of the condition of matters and replied that they would put in only one meter and that the Exchange Building Company should pay for the others. Knowing the position taken by the Gas and Water Company to be unjust, unfair, illegal and in direct violation of the franchise granted by Council to the Roanoke Land and Improvement Company and of the resolutions of Council subsequently passed when the Land and Improvement Company transferred its franchise to the Roanoke Gas and Water Company, we employed counsel and asked for the injunction which was readily granted by the court."

This is perhaps the most important and interesting legal transaction that has taken place in Roanoke during the year and the outlook will be viewed with interest by all classes of citizens.

VIRGINIA NOTES.

Marshal Jones, who was principal of the Berryville High School for several years, died Friday last. He entered the Confederate army when a mere youth of fifteen, and served gallantly in the ranks until its close.

Rev. W. S. Dorset, Millwood, Clark county, has declined a call to the Charlottesville Baptist Church.

Mr. James P. Willet has purchased the old Caleb Cushing estate situated on the falls Church road, in Virginia, about two miles from Georgetown bridge. The property was sold by J. E. Clements and C. E. Nichol, commissioners appointed by the circuit court of Virginia to satisfy claims. It was held by the Welsh family, of West Washington, who purchased it from Mr. Cushing. The estate is one of historic interest, and was not only the home of Caleb Cushing when he was Attorney General, but was also occupied as a summer residence by President Madison during his administration. The estate consists of 100 acres of ground and a handsome house. The price paid for the property was $18,000.

JUST LIKE YOU.

Here is Something That You Will Recognize.

It Has Not Been a Pleasant Experience for You Either—This May Give You Knowledge You Never Possessed Before.

You think that you differ from everybody else, but we are all made up of the same stuff. You read this you will have an exact expression of your own feelings. "I suffered from dyspepsia for twenty years," states Mr. Joseph Hogan, of Franklin, Mass. (P. O. Box 149). "The stomach became weakened so that after eating what would be considered a full meal it would not be digested, but would accumulate in the stomach. "I would have a sense of fullness or bloating after eating with distress and I would suffer greatly with acidity and eructations of large quantities of acrid seething water. "I had tried many remedies without finding relief. A gentleman who had been cured of a similar trouble by the use of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy urged me to give it a trial. The result justified my confidence. I began the use of the remedy three months ago and have not yet used three bottles, and have had perfect relief."

MR. JOSEPH HOGAN.

"I have eaten all kinds of food and digest it without the slightest difficulty. I consider myself cured of my former dyspepsia. It gives me pleasure to testify to the efficacy of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy in my case. "If Mr. Hogan's case does not describe your symptoms and feelings, it comes very near it, and the same remedy will cure you if you will use it. You will find it the best purifying and restorative. For it will give you perfect digestion, invigorate and enrich your blood, and make your nerves strong and steady. "Doctors, druggists, in fact, everybody recom mend it, for everybody knows it cures. It is purely vegetable and harmless, and is sold by druggists for $1. "It is the prescription and discovery of Dr. Greene, of 35 W. 14th street, New York, the most successful physician and specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. The doctor can be consulted free, personally or by letter."

A CRICKET MATCH.

The First Game in the Bat, Cap and Belt Competition.

There will be a cricket match this afternoon at 4 o'clock on the Janette tract between the batchelors and married men, the former captained by T. B. Jackson and the latter by C. E. Graves. The teams are very evenly matched and a keen struggle is expected. The married men are anxious to avenge their defeats of last season, when the singles were victorious in both games. The game will be interesting also from the fact that this is the first match in the competition for the bat, cap and belt offered by the club to the member with the best batting and bowling average for the season. The winner of which must take part in at least eight match games. Appended is a list of the players: Married, C. E. Graves, Jas. Devon, W. H. Howells, J. W. Leigh, R. A. Sinclair, A. B. Meade, C. H. Grindrod, H. L. Daw, W. Mosher, C. Freshney, C. Butler, A. Vail, Jos. W. Cox. Single, T. B. Jackson, Edward Hughes, G. C. Hughes, O. A. Kerns, W. P. Rogers, H. P. Kirk, R. Mottu, Jas. Oostermeyer, W. Damage by the Heavy Wind. The Virginia brewery has its roof rolled up by the heavy wind yesterday noon. Numerous windows were broken over the city and much damage done in a small way. No casualties are reported save that Mr. Brodie, the tailor, had his shoulder cut by a window blowing in on him.

This lies directly on the Pulaski and Giles turnpike road one-half mile north of Dublin and contains 73 1/2 acres, about 20 acres of which is in virgin forest of the most beautiful oak timber to be found in the famous groves of Pulaski. The land lies gently rolling, there not being one acre of steep land on it. It is well adapted to grain and grasses, over $600 worth of hay being cut in one year from 30 acres.
